

Erik Reinart, organist

A former chorister of All Saints' Church in Winnipeg under Donald Hadfield, Erik Reinart completed studies in organ performance at the Geneva Conservatory, McGill University, and the University of Montréal. After winning first prize in the triennial Concours d'orgue de Québec in 2001, he released a recording of Bach's Klavierübung III on the Atma label. He often appears in recital and as organist with Montréal-area choirs, as well as with the Montréal Symphony. Mr. Reinart is currently Organist and Choir Director at St. Georges Anglican Church in downtown Montréal.
