

Claudine St-Arnauld, violin, obtained a Bachelor in Music Performance from the Quebec Conservatory of Music and studied at McGill University under Yehonatan Berick. She is a member of the WSO since 1998 and has performed with the Manitoba Chamber Orchestra, Camerata Nova, as well as the MusikBarock ensemble as group performer and soloist.

Carolyn Nagelberg, cello, graduated with honours from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. Before coming to Winnipeg, she was a member of orchestras in Michigan, Ohio, Virginia, Washington, D.C., and Minnesota. She is a member of the WSO, the MCO and MusikBarock Ensemble and has participated actively in Winnipeg's musical community since 1972.

Greg Hay, originally from Winnipeg, is a violist with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. Greg completed his Bachelor of music degree at Brandon University and later pursued a Master's degree at McGill University. He has worked as a freelance musician with such ensembles as the Montreal Symphony Orchestra, the Quebec Symphony Orchestra and l'Ensemble contemporain de Montréal, as well as the chamber orchestra Les Violons du Roy, with which he toured extensively and recorded several CDs. Greg is also active as a violin/viola teacher in Winnipeg and has recently joined the faculty of music at Brandon University as a sessional instructor.

A native of Winnipeg, Rachel Moody, violin, has been an active performing artist since her youth. She obtained her bachelor and master's degrees in violin performance with Yehonatan Berick at McGill University, and has recorded or collaborated with such diverse groups as Skye consort, Kore ensemble, Kleztory, Toronto chamber orchestra, JP Hoe, Eagle and Hawk, and Stars. Rachel has been a member of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra since 2004.

A member of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, Bruce Okrainec earned a Bachelors Degree from the University of Alberta and a Masters Degree from the University of Minnesota. He has studied with many leading bassists, and is the recipient of numerous scholarships and grants, including the Canada Council for the Arts.