

Camerata Nova and Indian City sing the land!

On Thursday, May 15, 2014, 8:00 pm, at the West End Cultural Centre (586 Ellice), Camerata Nova teams up with Vince Fontaine and his band, Indian City, to offer fans a totally new experience, mixing Aboriginal rock, choral music and traditional pow-wow chant.

Designed by Andrew Balfour and Vince Fontaine and conducted by Mel Braun, Red & White Unplugged will feature well-known songs by Indian City, arrangements of Indian City and Eagle & Hawk songs for choir and band, as well as new compositions by Andrew Balfour. The concert will also feature a guest performance by traditional drummer/singer Cory Campbell.

“This is a daring experiment. It’s time that people from north, central and south Winnipeg make and enjoy music together,” said Andrew Balfour, Artistic Director of Camerata Nova. “I’ve been a fan of Vince Fontaine and his bands for years. It’s great to have a chance to work with him on something totally outside the box.”

“I’ve had the chance to see Camerata Nova more than once and have been a fan of Andrew’s for some time,” says Vince Fontaine. “I think this is a great collaboration with some brilliant vocal arrangements to some of my favorite music pieces. Indian City band is really pumped for this. A special night ahead.”

For this collaboration with Camerata Nova, Indian City will be composed of: Vince Fontaine, Gerry Atwell, Pamela Davis, Neewa Mason, William Prince, Jeremy Koz, Steve Martens and Ray “Coco” Stevenson.

Tickets (adults $28, seniors $23, students $12) are available at McNally Robinson, through our website (www.cameratanova.com) and at the door, as well as by phone (204.918.4547). High school students can also get tickets for $5 through the eyeGo to the Arts program (www.eyego.org).

Presenting Camerata Nova’s 2014-2015 Season!

Camerata Nova is unveiling its 2014-2015 season at Red White & Unplugged, along with a special opportunity for early-bird pricing. Look for our new brochure describing all FOUR, yes FOUR, concerts of the year, including Dowland in Dublin, a special collaboration on October 8! 2014-2015 subscriptions include the four-concert package.

	Before May 31	After May 31
Individual subscriptions
Adults:	$65	$75
Seniors:	$50	$60
Students:	$25	$30
Buddy subscriptions
Adults:	$125	$140
Seniors:	$95	$110
Students:	$45	$50

At the concert...

- Camerata Nova is hosting a RAINBOW AUCTION prior to the concert’s start and during intermission. Proceeds will go towards 2014-2015 music projects. Among the prizes to be won: a Winnipeg Art Gallery family membership, catered lunch with a Camerata Nova member, and Indian City and Camerata Nova CDs.
- The West End Cultural Centre serves alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages (cash bar).

Help Us Bring Winnipeg Together

On May 15, Camerata Nova is collaborating with Vince Fontaine and Indian City to perform Red and White Unplugged, an innovative concert that will bring together classical choral music, traditional Aboriginal drumming/chanting and First Nations rock. Our goal is to attract audience from north, central and south Winnipeg. We have already received requests to provide subsidized tickets to people who would like to come but cannot afford the full ticket price. If you are interested in making a tax receipt-able donation to help deserving groups or individuals gain entry to this performance and to future concerts, please contact our Executive Director, Janet Charron, at info@cameratanova.com or call 204.918.4547. Every gift counts!